

Qualified candidates:

- The qualified candidate should have 1 to 5 years of transportation engineering experience.
- You will provide support in traffic forecasting, service level calculations, impact evaluation, and computerized traffic signal evaluations.
- Local Orange, Riverside, and/or San Bernardino County experience is desirable.
- Experience analyzing data science, road safety, active transportation, and modeling is desirable.
- The candidate should possess excellent verbal and written communication skills with the capacity and desire to learn more.
- BS or higher in transportation planning, engineering, or related discipline.
- Proficient in MS Word and MS Excel.
- Proficient with Vistro and/or Synchro software for level of service (LOS) calculations
- A valid California Driver's License is required.

Benefits:

- Vacation accrues each month and increases based on your years of employment with the Company.
- We observe 10 paid legal holidays per year.
- LLG offers a wide range of benefits including, medical, dental, vision, life insurance, LTD, STD, retirement planning and a matching 401k plan.